Salomons Museum Launch

The collection of Salomons family memorabilia has been upgraded with the help of a research grant from the Arts & Humanities Board. This has enabled us to improve the collection with new display panels, leaflets & a new website relating to the lives & work of the family, particularly the three David Salomons, who lived at Salomons from the 1830s to the 1930s.

To celebrate the launch a grand re-opening is planned for the end of June. For further information please call Kathy Chaney on 01892 507717.

Heritage Open Days

Thursday 7th—Sunday 10th September

Salomons is once again opening its doors to the public in support of Heritage Open Days and will have staff available to bring alive its fascinating history. For details of opening times over these four days please call Reception on 01892 515152

Welte Organ—Grand Opening Concert Thursday 21st September 2006

The renovation of the unique Welte Organ at Salomons is nearing completion and the first public performance of this unique instrument for over 50 years will be by Nigel Ogden, the presenter of "The Organist Entertains" on BBC Radio 2. The evening will include a short talk on the history of the Organ and a demonstration of the unique roll-playing mechanism. The concert starts at 7.30pm & tickets are just £15 to include a glass of bubbly. There will also be a pre-concert carvery meal available from 6.00pm served in the Dining Room priced at £14.95 per person for 2 courses. Please call Reception on 01892 515152 for further information or to make a booking. cont'd over

The Welte Organ, which can be played manually or mechanically, is the largest self-playing pipe organ in the country (and possibly the world) There are over 2000 pipes in the organ ranging in length from more than 16 feet to a half-inch and these are supplemented by percussion effects comprising a bass drum, cymbal, side drum, triangle, castanets, church bells & a glockenspiel.

The restoration by Manders Organs has been supported by a Heritage Lottery Fund grant.

Christmas Programme 2006

Celebrate Christmas with us this year and join one of the many festive events we have to entertain you throughout December

We will not only be offering the ever popular Party Nights in the Victorian Theatre but also for 2006 are introducing Casino dinners as an alternative on selected Saturday nights. Both events offer a carvery menu and are suitable for groups wishing to share in a 'big party' atmosphere.

In addition to our private 3 course lunches & dinners we have now introduced a 2 course lunch option to include main course, dessert & coffee—ideal for those with less time!

Other regular events on offer include Sunday Carvery lunches with table magic, Christmas Day lunch & our New Years Eve Gala Buffet with Casino & dancing.

On Sunday 10th December you are warmly invited to join the chamber choir in our candlelit carol concert in the Victorian Theatre to the accompaniment of the Welte organ. Price is £10.00, including mulled wine & mince pies, children under 12 £5.00.

Also on Sunday 17th December Salomons proudly presents:- 'A Victorian Amusement' given by the award winning Green Room Theatre Company. Inclusive tickets for a 2 course carvery menu are £25.00 adults, £15.00 children under 12.

For a copy of our Christmas programme containing full details of all our events please call the Conference & Events Sales office on 01892 515152.
