Viennese Chamber Music
by Mozart & Beethoven
7.30pm

To celebrate the Golden Jubilee of Canterbury Christ Church University, Salomons is pleased to announce a concert entitled "Viennese Conversations" which offers a snapshot of chamber music played on period instruments, thus opening up a window onto the glorious sound of classical chamber music as imagined by the composers themselves.

The performers are Jane Booth – specialist in the early clarinet and chalumeau; Jennifer Morsches – a chamber musician, continuo cellist and orchestral player and John Irving who specialises in 18th century historical performance practice as a fortepianist, clavichordist and harpsichordist.

Tickets £15.00 adults, £7.50 students.
